Dear Sir,

In connection with the opening ceremony of the Maternity Ward at Narasimharajapur on the 6th instant, I write to state that the donor of the building Mr. Devalkoppa Subbiah Gowda, without any sort of previous intimation to me, presented a sandalwood case to me on the occasion. When I returned the article to the old gentleman, he was very much upset and requested that it should be retained. I explained to him the rules and said that it was not possible and I have deposited this in the District Treasury. The cost of the article may be about Rs 20/-. I solicit the orders of Government in the matter of its disposal under article 261 (b) of Chapter XI of the Manual of General -- Circulars and standing orders Part I.

Yours sincerely,

B Narasavendara

To

B.T. Kesaviengar Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to Government, Bangalore.

dated 28.1.37

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. letter No 5-5/36-37 dated 12.1.37 regarding to the disposal of the Sandal wood Base presented to you by Mr Dandapani Srikantiah Gowda I am desired to state that Govt do not consider it desirable to allow officers to retain such presents and accordingly to request that the Sandal wood case may be sent to the Govt Treasury at Bangalore Depot for safe custody and credit of proceeds to Govt on the occasion of the opening of the Maternity ward at Narasimharajapur,

Yours faithfully
